

Video Chatting

- 1) Both devices must connect to the internet
- 2) A request to connect is sent to the device on the receiving side of the video chat call
- 3) Call is picked up by receiving device
- 4) Using Voice Over IP and Internet Protocols, audio and visual content is securely encoded, sent, and decoded between devices.

